

1st City Council District

Jenifer Rajkumar (D)

Hello. My name is Jenifer Rajkumar. I am a civil rights lawyer, a Democratic District Leader, and I am running to represent you in the New York City Council. I have been a courageous voice for the disenfranchised my entire career, and I will continue to be a courageous voice for our community in the City Council. As a civil rights lawyer from a national law firm, I have the tough negotiating skills needed to fight for Downtown Manhattan in City Hall. As a Democratic District Leader elected overwhelmingly by my neighbors downtown, I have built the community relationships needed to effectively deliver results for our community. As your next Council Member, I will be your strong, proactive, and responsive ally, fighting for working families in our many diverse neighborhoods across Lower Manhattan. I will stand up for more affordable housing, fight for new schools, and champion progressive values. I learned my progressive values as the daughter of immigrants, who came to this country with $300, a suitcase, and a dream. My parents taught me to fight for the powerless and the voiceless. And I've done just that, standing up against corporate fraud, protecting victims of domestic violence, and preserving women's reproductive rights. A vote for me is a vote to have your voice heard in City Hall. And I will always represent only you, not outside interests or big business. So please vote for me, Jenifer Rajkumar, the only Jenifer on the ballot, on Tuesday, September 10. Thank you.
